Catch the Buzz: "tHis Is Very IMPORTANT" is Set to Electrify Hollywood Fringe 2024.

"tHis Is Very IMPORTANT" is a thought-provoking and emotionally charged one-woman show that delves deep into the lives of four main characters: Eena, Mary, Samantha, and Val. Each character's story is a powerful exploration of the complexities surrounding HIV and its impact on individuals from diverse backgrounds.

About the main characters...

Eena, the wise and compassionate narrator, guides the audience through the intimate stories of these women, creating a safe space for them to share their experiences and journeys. She encourages the audience to approach these stories with empathy and understanding, emphasizing the importance of doing better when we know better and always striving to vibrate at a higher frequency.

Mary's story is a poignant portrayal of the challenges faced by a devout Christian and dedicated ER nurse who, despite saving herself for marriage, finds herself grappling with an HIV diagnosis. Her journey highlights the importance of support systems, particularly within religious communities, and the struggle to maintain one's faith and professional identity in the face of adversity.

Samantha's narrative is a heart-wrenching exploration of the connection between childhood trauma, emotional neglect, and the desperate search for love and acceptance. Born with a birth defect and raised in a tumultuous household, Samantha's story sheds light on how the absence of love and support can lead individuals down a path of bad choices and looking for love in all the wrong places... and people.

Val's story is a shocking revelation that challenges the audience's perceptions of HIV and the stereotypes surrounding those affected by the virus. As a successful social media influencer with a seemingly perfect life, Val's recent diagnosis serves as a stark reminder that HIV does not discriminate and can impact anyone, regardless of their social status or public image.
